Japanese Level 1 Beginners Course from July 9th in Auckland: Euroasia is New Zealand's premier private provider of services in the area of foreign languages and cultures. Visit our website www.euroasia.co.nz for other levels and languages that we provide service for!

A first taste of the Japanese language, this course is for complete beginners. No previous knowledge of the language is required.

By the end of this course, you will already know enough to get by in Japanese: you will be able to cope with the most common everyday situations by asking and answering simple questions, and you will be able to understand people when they speak to you about the situations covered.

Unit 1 - Greetings You will be able to greet people, give your name and ask how people are.

Unit 2 - Professions You will be able to ask and answer questions about your job; you will also be able to ask about and give your phone number.

Unit 3 - Nationalities and languages You will be able to say where you come from and give the language you speak; you will also be able to ask other people about these subjects.
